

Dr. Karen Van Zino visits Towne Center Books reading excerpts from her new book

Friday, October 12, 2018 7 pm

This book is a rich and varied collection of poems, an anthology of wisdom and beauty. These poems — ancient to modern; a few lines to many; serious to funny — are organized around nine core personality types as described by the Enneagram, an ancient map of transformation melded with modern psychology.

Dr. Van Zino brings together her long experience of working with people as a family doctor, teacher and coach with her love of literature, helping others to explore the rich potential for healing and growth inherent in each of us.

Enriched with humor, storytelling, and historical bits to entertain, this volume will enlighten and inspire. It will appeal to those new to poetry as well as those already familiar and to everyone wishing to know themselves at a deeper level.

What a treasure!!! I have already incorporated one of the poems in a client's coaching programme - like it is written for him. Thank you so much for this great Anthology.

~ Rudi Kindts, Partner and Integral Development Coach, UK

Please RSVP to

Townecenterbooks.com books available in the store

The author's personal insights are rendered as lyrically - and resonate as memorably - as lines in the literature presented within these pages. Gayle Scott

A pioneering anthology that weaves the power of poetry with that of the Enneagram to show us ourselves.... I enthusiastically recommend this book.

~ Roxanne Howe-Murphy, Ed.D. author of Deep Coaching and Deep Living

Visit Karen at www.karenavzinomd.com